SMOOTHIES

A smoothie is a thick and creamy beverage and made from a variety of ingredients placed in a blender. The ingredients are pureed until you have a smooth concoction. One of the most excellent features of smoothies is that they can contain whatever is desired. Typical ingredients include:

- Fruits
- Vegetables
- Yogurt
- Seeds
- Nuts
- Juice
- Milk or water
- Protein powder
- Spices

How to Make a Smoothie

I'm a BIG fan of smoothie recipes that are EASY and simple. To me, half the point of a smoothie is to have a delicious and nutritious meal/ snack that can be made in 5 minutes TOPS.

So making a healthy smoothie is easy around here. Step 1: gather your ingredients. Step 2: add those ingredients to your blender. Step 3: BLEND until creamy, adding a little extra liquid if needed to get your blender going. Step 4: Pour and ENJOY!

5 Health Benefits of Drinking

The following are five potential health benefits of drinking smoothies.

1. Increases consumption of fruits and vegetables

Eating enough fruits and vegetables is crucial to good health. One to two or three cups a day of each can lower blood pressure, reduce the risk of developing some types of cancers, lower the risk of developing diabetes, and reduce cardiovascular and stroke risk.

2. Increases fiber intake

Fiber helps the digestive system and may help reduce the chances of developing heart disease, diabetes, and colon cancer. Some high fiber foods to add to smoothies include raspberries, blackberries, strawberries, pears, apples, bananas, dark leafy green vegetables, chia seeds, sunflower kernels, ground flaxseed, and almond butter, to name just a few.

3. Can be a meal replacement

If on a weight loss program, smoothies made with healthy ingredients can replace a meal and provide essential nutrients. If you are too busy to eat and cook regular meals and want to avoid fast foods, prepare a container of smoothie ahead of time for quick consumption.

4. Can provide a nutritional balance of fats, protein, carbohydrates, vitamins, and minerals

The key to achieving nutritional balance in a smoothie is to use fruits and vegetables as the primary ingredients, enhanced with healthy fats in seeds, nuts or nut butter, and protein.

5. Helps manage food cravings

One of the benefits of drinking smoothies for breakfast is that they can provide a source of energy and protein. Research studies have found that higher protein intake makes people feel fuller and reduces food cravings later in the day. Proteins are complex molecules that take longer to break down than carbohydrates, so they provide longer-lasting energy.

Protein also helps prevent muscle loss when losing weight on a calorie-restricted diet, making high-protein smoothies a great weight-loss food. Many people add protein powder made from plants, milk, or eggs to their smoothies. High protein ingredients include almonds and other nuts, peanut butter, flax seeds, soy milk, and tofu, to name a few.

PREPARATION

1. Peel off the banana skin and chop it into bite-size chunks
2. Peel off the skin of the tangerine; take out the seeds. (Make sure you remove all the seeds because the seeds contain hydrocyanic acid (aka. hydrogen cyanide), which can give the smoothie a bitter taste and be toxic in high doses) OR you could also use freshly squeezed tangerine juice in place of the whole tangerine
3. Toss the banana and pineapple chunks, tangerine, and almonds into the blender
4. Using a measuring cup, pour in the amount of cold water or milk that you want. The amount of liquid you add will depend on the consistency you desire. (If you are using yogurt or ice cream, you can add them at this point)

How to make Zobo Drink – Sorrel Drink

Zobo Aka Zoborodo! What's not to Love? Zobo is a tasty and popular Nigerian drink made from Roselle (Hibiscus sabdariffa).

Do you know that Zobo is highly medicinal?

Well, now you know. Some of the health benefits of sorrel include its ability to boost eyesight, strengthen the immune system, improve digestion, build strong bones, increase circulation, increase energy levels, help prevent cancer, reduce certain skin conditions, lower blood pressure, increase appetite, slow the aging process, protect against diabetes, strengthen heart health, and improve kidney health.

To enjoy the health benefits of Zobo, you've got to retain its natural goodness as much as possible. The addition of artificial sweeteners may interfere with its natural nutrients. I always sweeten mine with natural fruits like Pineapples and Oranges. Pure Honey is a good natural sweetener.

Ingredients:

- 2 Cups Zobo Leaves
- 1 Very Ripe and Sweet Pineapple
- 2 Sweet Oranges
- 2 Inch Ginger Root
- 2 Garlic Cloves
- 1/4 Cup Pure Honey

2 Tablespoons Cloves (Konofuru/Konofiri)
Handful Mint Leaves (Optional)
1/2 Cup Honey (Optional)

Preparation:

Peel and slice the Pineapple and set aside.

Run the Zobo leaves under a cold tap and rinse until you've gotten rid of the dirt. You'll need to do this a few times as the leaves do carry an awful lot of sand and dirt. You'll notice the colour/juice seeping while you're rinsing it but relax, there's plenty more where that came from.

Pour the Zobo leaves into a big pot, add water , you'll need 2-3 litres, depending on your desired consistency.

Place the pot on low to medium heat, squeeze in the oranges, you may choose to toss some of the rinds as well if you prefer your Zobo citrusy...

You'll notice the lemon rind in the photo. The lemon did make my Zobo a bit sour, I had to remove the rind shortly after. If you'll be adding artificial sweeteners to your Zobo, then you can add lemon to the recipe, if not, skip this please.

Thinly chop the Garlic and Ginger, then add....

Add the cloves, this is what it looks like before and after, I tossed them in a dry mill to grind before adding...

Now, add the Mint Leaves and allow this simmer for 30 minutes on low to medium heat.

Tip: For intense flavour, leave to steep for a few hours before serving. I left mine refrigerated overnight...

Strain the Zobo with a fine sieve or paper towel, wring the leaves to squeeze out as much juice as you can. Dilute with more water if you find it too thick....

If you prefer your it sweetened, add the Honey, stir and combine...

You can also sweeten with sugar or other artificial sweeteners though this may affect the medicinal value.

Serve ice cold.....
